

Families Reunited as DP's Arrive

The Globe and Mail (1936-); Mar 19, 1949; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 3

—Globe and Mail.

Two of a group of 176 immigrants who arrived at the Union Station yesterday. Mrs. Arno Sild is teaching 5-year-old Heiki to speak English while they're on their way to Barrie. Her husband came from Estonia three months ago to make a home for his family in Canada.

Families Reunited as DP's Arrive

Ukrainian Anastasia Serwaczac captures 3-year-old Bronsilaw to make him more presentable as he whizzes by with his toy truck. They were on their way last night to meet Mr. Serwaczac in Preston.

Marie Kurhan, 10, from the Ukraine, decides to take things easy and give her doll a rest in Union Station. She and her mother will join father in Mount Forest.