
LATEST FROM HALIFAX.

Arrivals—Illness of Senator Bell—P. E. Island Railway.*(By Telegraph from our own Correspondent.)HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 16.

The steamship Ismalian arrived from Glasgow with freight for Halifax and St. John emigrants.

Senator Bell is dangerously ill, at his residence Belltown, near Kentville.

Hon. Joseph Howe arrived here from Windsor last night.

The contract for building the Prince Edward Island Railway has at last been settled by being given to Messrs. Schrieber & Burpee, of New Brunswick. The work will be commenced at once.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

LATEST FROM FATHER POINT.FATHER POINT, Sept. 16.

The St. Andrew, from Glasgow, arrived at 1:10, p. m.; 21 cabin, 23 intermediate and 56 steerage passengers.

BASE-BALL.

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 16.

A game of base-ball was played here today, between the Oshawa and Newcastle clubs, with the following score: Oshawa, 27; Beavers, 46; resulting in favour of Newcastle.

BASE-BALL.

BRAMPTON, Sept. 16

At a game of base-ball played here this afternoon between the "Dauntless," of Toronto, and the "Union," of this place, the "Dauntless" were victorious. Score—"Dauntless," 28; "Union," 26.

PIC-NIC.

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 16.

Mr. H. A. Massy, who has been largely engaged in manufacturing in Newcastle for the past 22 years, and who is about leaving for the United States, gave the employees of the foundry and woollen factory, with their friends, numbering over two hundred, a picnic, with a dance in the evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent.